Creating a Nation of Learners

Strategic Plan 2012–2016
Why Plan

- Strategic plans are required of every federal agency and comprise the main elements of the Government Performance and Results Act of 1993.

- The Administration places emphasis on:
  - Using performance information to lead, learn, and improve outcomes;
  - Communicating performance coherently and concisely for better results and transparency; and
  - Strengthening problem-solving networks, inside and outside government, to improve outcomes and performance management practices

“IMLS should support and promote libraries and museums as the heart of the community.”

“Making an initiative that is particularly supportive of small and remote institutional collections would also be a huge help to the field and the public.”

“IMLS should be fully engaged with large scale digitization and access efforts like the Open Library project at the Internet Archive and the Digital [Public] Library of America project at Harvard.”

“Museums and libraries exist to support engaged minds and critical thoughts. ... intellectual freedom is at the center of our service to knowledge.”

“IMLS can support libraries and museums in identifying a variety of effective ways to convene groups in constructive dialog and learning about issues of significance to society.”
Mission

The mission of IMLS is to inspire libraries and museums to advance innovation, learning, and cultural and civic engagement. We provide leadership through research, policy development and grant-making.

Vision

A democratic society where communities and individuals thrive with broad public access to knowledge, cultural heritage and lifelong learning.
Values

- Working for the public good
- Integrity
- Collaboration
- Continuous learning
Goals

1. Engaging, empowering learning experiences
2. Community anchor institutions
3. Discovery of knowledge and cultural heritage
4. US policies sustain access to knowledge
5. Excellence in public management
Goal 1: Learning

IMLS places the learner at the center and supports engaging experiences in libraries and museums that prepare people to be full participants in their local communities and our global society.
Goal 1: Learning — Objectives

- Promote and support inclusive and accessible learning opportunities
- Support communities of practice based on research-based impactful experiences
- Facilitate partnerships among libraries, museums, and other learning providers
- Support library and museum leaders to meet the needs of diverse communities in rapidly changing environment
Goal 1: Sample Benchmarks

- Starting in FY 2012, IMLS will issue annual reports on trends and potential gaps in availability and use of museum and library services.
- By FY 2016, at least 75 percent of grantees will complete new reporting requirements that highlight project lessons and best practices.

- $4M for 30 Learning Labs in libraries and museums
- Based on YOUmedia model in Chicago Public Library
- Creates empowering learning opportunities for youth
- Early November: First phase announcements
- Spring 2011: Second phase announcements
Goal 2: Community

IMLS promotes museums and libraries as strong community anchors that enhance civic engagement, cultural opportunities, and economic vitality.
Goal 2: Community — Objectives

- Invest in projects that strengthen libraries and museums as core components of community infrastructure
- Partner with other federal agencies to leverage library and museum resources
- Ensure that public/private sector leaders know value of libraries and museums
Goal 2: Sample Benchmarks

- By FY 13, 70 percent of IMLS grants from FY 2005 through FY 2011 will be categorized by project taxonomy and available on the IMLS Web site.

- By FY 14, 80 percent of applicants for community engagement projects will use IMLS-provided community assessment tools.
Goal 2: Community — Highlight

Digitally Inclusive Communities

- FCC asked IMLS to develop framework for digital communities
- With University of Washington and ICMA, produced draft Framework for Digitally Inclusive Communities
- Gathering feedback for final draft and implementation plan by early 2012
Goal 2: Community — Highlight

Public Libraries and the Workforce

- Partnership with US Department of Labor
- The Training Administration (ETA) and IMLS are working together to highlight effective practices and encourage additional collaboration between the workforce investment system and public libraries.
- Project Compass - North Carolina State Library and Webjunction providing focused workforce assistance training for libraries nationally
Goal 2: Community — Highlight

Let’s Move! Museums & Gardens

- Developed in coordination with national museum and garden leaders and in conjunction with First Lady Michelle Obama’s campaign to overcome childhood obesity.
- Museums and gardens seeking to teach young people to make healthy food choices and be physically active.
- More than 450 museums and gardens signed on within the first two months of the program.
Goal 3: Content

IMLS supports exemplary stewardship of museum and library collections and promotes the use of technology to facilitate discovery of knowledge and cultural heritage.
Goal 3: Content — Objectives

- Support care and management of nation’s collections to sustain and expand access
- Develop and implement a nationwide strategy to expand public access to information, meaning and content found in museum and library collections
Goal 3: Sample Benchmarks

- By FY 13, IMLS and partner organizations will publish and share consensus-based guidelines on the digitization and digital curation of collections.
- By FY 14, 80 percent of digitization applicants will include standardized best practices as part of their digitization project proposals.
Goal 3: Content — Highlight

Connecting to Collections

- Give priority to providing safe conditions for collections
- Develop emergency plans
- Encourage private and public sector support for collections care
Goal 4: Equitable Access to Knowledge

IMLS advises the President and Congress on plans, policies, and activities to sustain and increase public access to information and ideas.
Goal 4: Equitable Access to Knowledge — Objectives

- Promote federal policies that improve access and remove barriers to information services for underserved communities
- Identify trends and provide consistent and reliable data on museum and library services and use
- Support and extend a national digital infrastructure that leverages libraries and museums as key providers of access to digital information and services
Goal 4: Equitable Access to Knowledge — Sample Benchmarks

- By FY 14, IMLS will implement annual national, regional, and state reports on the state of the museum sector.
- By FY 14, all IMLS statistical collections on library and museum services and use will be integrated into federal statistical repositories.
Goal 4: Equitable Access to Knowledge — Highlight

Digital Public Library of America (DPLA)

- Planning for a large-scale digital public library to make museum, library, and archive information available, free of charge, to all
- Managed by Berkman Center at Harvard, funded by Sloan Foundation
- Working groups focusing on governance, content, technology, legal issues
- All federal partners involved – IMLS, NARA, LOC, Smithsonian Institution
Goal 4: Equitable Access to Knowledge — Highlight

Publishing Research, Data Analysis, and Issue Briefs

To inform policy makers at all levels, IMLS has released analysis in the following areas:

- Impacts of Budget Cuts to State Libraries
- Distribution of Public Access Broadband by Rural, Suburban, and Urban Areas
- Demographics of Public Library Computer Users
- Ten Years of Increasing Public Demand for Library Services and Decreasing Budgets
- Characteristics of Public Funding for Museums in the U.S.
Goal 5: Public Management Excellence

IMLS achieves excellence in public management and performs as a model organization through strategic alignment of its resources and prioritization of programmatic activities, maximizing value for the American public.
Goal 5: Public Management Excellence — Objectives

- Develop an exemplary mode of efficient Federal grants management
- Cultivate a culture of planning, evaluation and evidence-based practice to maximize the impact of public investments
- Promote greater transparency and accountability of IMLS operations
- Encourage and promote an engaged and energized IMLS workforce
By FY 14 IMLS will achieve a 60 percent decrease in the time to process an application from receipt of proposal to decision.

By FY 14, a least 70 percent of grant reports from FY 08 – FY 13 will be posted on the IMLS Web site.
