

Program Overview – Native American/Native Hawaiian Museum Services Program

Native American/Native Hawaiian Museum Services (NANH) grants support Indian tribes and organizations that primarily serve and represent Native Hawaiians. They are intended to provide opportunities to sustain heritage, culture, and knowledge through strengthened activities in areas such as exhibitions, educational services and programming, professional development, and collections stewardship.

For this program, applicants are not required to have a museum established in order to apply. While grants are intended to support activities in museums and museum-related organizations, such as cultural centers, the program also supports museum-like activities that are relevant to applicant tribes and Native Hawaiian organizations, such as public programming, collections support, and language preservation.
