

Field Review Criteria – National Leadership Grants for Museums

PROJECT JUSTIFICATION

- Is the project clearly explained?
- Is the need, problem, or challenge to be addressed clearly identified and supported by relevant evidence?
- Have stakeholders and/or those who will benefit from the project been involved in project planning?
- Does the project address current needs of the museum field and/or have the potential to advance practice in the museum profession?
- Does the project align with the selected NLG for Museums category: Advancing Digital Assets and Capacity, Diversity and Inclusion, Collections Care and Access, or Professional Development?

PROJECT WORK PLAN

- Are the proposed activities informed by appropriate theory and practice?
- Are the proposed evaluation activities and performance measurements appropriate for the project? Will they result in valid, reliable, and generalizable findings?
- Do the identified staff, partners, consultants, and service providers possess the experience and skills necessary to complete the work successfully?
- Are the goals, assumptions, and risks clearly stated?
- Is the schedule of work realistic and achievable?
- Are the time, personnel, and financial resources identified appropriate for the scope and scale of the project?
- Is a clear methodology described for tracking the project's progress and adjusting course when necessary?
- Is there an effective plan for communicating results and/or sharing discoveries?
- For research projects, does the proposal answer the questions outlined in the guidance on (see National Leadership Grants for Museums Overview)?

PROJECT RESULTS

- Is the plan for collecting and reporting data corresponding to the Performance Goal(s) and Performance Measure Statement(s) selected for the project well designed and feasible?
- Are the project's intended results clearly articulated, realistic, meaningful, actionable, and linked to the need, problem, or challenge addressed by the project?
- Is the plan to effect meaningful change in knowledge, skills, behaviors, and/or attitudes solidly grounded and appropriately structured?
- Will the proposed project generate results such as models, tools, research findings, services, and practices that can be broadly used, adapted, scaled or replicated in the museum profession?
- Is there a reasonable and practical plan for sustaining the benefits of the project beyond the conclusion of the grant?
