Measuring Success: Subgrants

Overview

- Welcome & Introduction
- Brief Review from January 21st Webinar
- What is a subaward?
- Examples
- What's Next

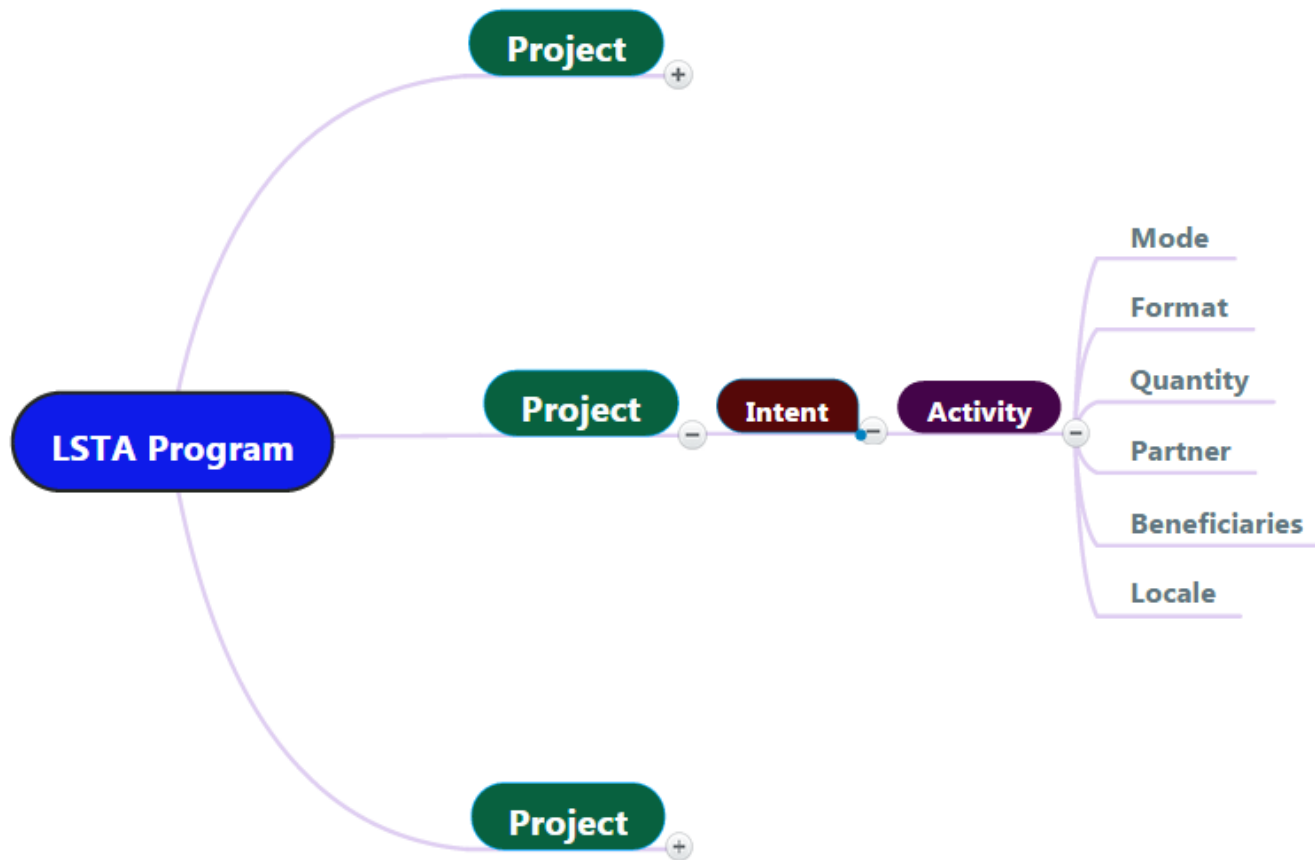

Review

Goals

- Build more dynamic/easy-to-use tool to capture better Grants to States data
- Standardize reporting process to increase comparability of project reports
- Highlight (and learn from) projects that are rigorously assessed
- Share information to facilitate SLAA peer learning;
 - build a catalogue of library program information;
 - improve data for policy analysis and in-depth evaluation work

Review: Projects

Review: Projects

What is a project?

- Set of discrete and interdependent activities carried out to achieve an intended outcome
- Contains allocable resources (e.g., dollars spent, people responsible for accomplishing tasks, venue or service location(s), time spent)

Review: Intents

Each Project is assigned one Intent

- An objective or expected result in a project.
- Intents are mapped to the six focal areas
- For example:

Focal Area	Intent(s)
Lifelong Learning	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Improve users' formal education• Improve users' general knowledge and skills
Information Access	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Improve users' ability to discover information resources.• Improve users' ability to obtain and/or use information resources.

Review: Activities

- Action(s) through which the intent of a project is accomplished.
- Activity Types:

Instruction	Involves an interaction for knowledge or skill transfer.
Content	Involves the acquisition, development, or transfer of information.
Planning/Evaluation	Involves design, development, or assessment of operations, services, or resources.
Procurement	Involves purchasing facilities, equipment/supplies, hardware/software, or other materials (not content) that support general library infrastructure.

Review: Activities

Activity Level information includes:

- Beneficiaries
- Locales

Subawards

- §200.92 Subaward.
- Subaward means an award provided by a pass-through entity to a subrecipient for the subrecipient to carry out part of a Federal award received by the pass-through entity. It does not include payments to a contractor or payments to an individual that is a beneficiary of a Federal program. A subaward may be provided through any form of legal agreement, including an agreement that the pass-through entity considers a contract.

Subawards

- §200.93 Subrecipient.
- Subrecipient means a non-Federal entity that receives a subaward from a pass-through entity to carry out part of a Federal program; but does not include an individual that is a beneficiary of such program. A subrecipient may also be a recipient of other Federal awards directly from a Federal awarding agency.

Subawards

FFATA Requirement

- Subawards of $25,000 or more must be reported in <http://fsrs.gov>

Subawards

Reporting in the new SPR

- Individual subawards of $5,000 or less may be combined together in a single project report if they:
 - Support a single Intent;
 - Cover the same subjects; AND
 - Target similar beneficiaries.

Example 1

West Dakota (SLAA) sought to increase participation in lifelong learning activities for all residents in the state. The SLAA offered a subaward program that provided libraries with $25,000 to support their related project.

Six libraries were awarded $25,000 each:

- 3 libraries implemented digital learning labs;
- 2 libraries created a makerspace;
- 1 library offered a GED program.

Example 1

How should this be reported?

- A. 6 projects: Projects reported by individual library
- B. 3 projects: Project A) Digital Learning Labs; Project B) Makerspaces; and Project C) GED program
- C. 1 project: Project A) Lifelong Learning in Libraries

Tips

- One “Intent” will be assigned to each project
- Up to two “Subjects” may be selected for each project
- Subawards of $5,000 or less may be aggregated into one project for reporting (if they support the same “Intent”).
- When multiple subawards are reported as a single project, subrecipients will be identified as “locales” under an activity.
