What is IMLS?

Who are we? IMLS is an independent grantmaking agency and the primary source of federal support for the nation's libraries and museums. IMLS helps ensure that all Americans have access to museum, library, and information services.

Our vision: A nation where museums and libraries work together to transform the lives of individuals and communities.

Our mission: To advance, support, and empower America's museums, libraries, and related organizations through grantmaking, research, and policy development.

Transforming Communities: IMLS Strategic Priorities

- Goal One: Promote Lifelong Learning
- Goal Two: Build Capacity
- Goal Three: Increase Public Access

National Leadership Grants for Libraries

National Leadership Grants for Libraries (NLG) support projects that enhance the quality of library and archives services nationwide by advancing theory and practice. Successful proposals will generate results such as new tools, research findings, models, services, practices, or alliances that will be widely used, adapted, scaled, or replicated to extend the benefits of federal investment.

Characteristics of successful proposals include: national impact, current significance, strategic collaborations, and demonstrated expertise.

Preliminary proposal deadline: September 17, 2018

Laura Bush 21st Century Librarian Program

The Laura Bush 21st Century Librarian Program (LB21) supports developing a diverse workforce of librarians to better meet the changing learning and information needs of the American public by: enhancing the training and professional development of library and archives professionals, developing faculty and library leaders, and recruiting and educating the next generation of library and archives professionals.

Characteristics of successful proposals include: broad impact, current significance, strategic collaborations, demonstrated expertise, and diversity and inclusion.

Preliminary proposal deadline: September 17, 2018

Eligibility

Your organization is eligible to apply if it is:

- Either a unit of state or local government, or a 501c3 nonprofit organization;
- Located in one of the 50 states or territories; and
- One of the following six types of organizations

Certain categories within LB21 have additional eligibility restrictions. Please refer to the Notice of Funding Opportunity for more information.

Eligibility

1. a library or a parent organization of a library
2. an academic or administrative unit
3. a digital library, if it makes library materials publicly available and provides library services
4. a library agency that is an official agency of a state or other unit of government
5. a library consortium that is a local, statewide, regional, interstate, or international cooperative association
6. a library association or organization

Eligibility

You are not eligible to apply if you are:

- A federally operated institution
- A for-profit organization
- An individual
- A foreign country or organization

If your organization is not eligible, we encourage you to apply through a partnership with an eligible institution.

To which program should we apply?

Is the project primarily about education and training for information professionals (formal or informal)? If yes, review the NOFO for LB21.

Is this an early career research project for a tenure-track faculty member? If yes, review the NOFO for LB21.

Is the work of national significance to libraries, archives and information science? If yes, the project probably fits in NLG, but double-check the NOFO.

To which program should we apply?
